CNDDDB SUBSCRIPTION/RENEWAL FORM

The California Natural Diversity Database (CNDDDB) collects information on the locations and condition of California's rare species, and natural communities and enters these data into a computerized data management and mapping system. The entire inventory can be purchased in the form of a PC database application called RareFind 2 on an annual subscription basis. It can be used either as a stand-alone research tool or linked with the GIS application ArcView for even greater flexibility. Your CNDDDB subscription includes:

- The CNDDDB - Available on CD Rom (RareFind 2, GIS, and Metadata).
- 6-month Update, or monthly (first 6 months only), password-protected on-line ftp (File Transfer Protocol) updates.
- GIS coverage for use in ArcView or ArcInfo on CD Rom or on the Department of Fish and Game's FTP site. Call for address and password.
- Map overlays at $20 per quad ($30 for mylar media).

Subscription [Commercial, Non-profit and Government = $300

Renewals of existing subscriptions = $200 (i.e., subscription hasn't lapsed more than 2 months)

Organizations can make as many copies of the data and application as necessary for their internal use, but cannot make copies for distribution outside of their organization.
